

Set your students on the path to smarter money choices

ASIC's MoneySmart Teaching is the Australian Government's financial literacy education program for primary and secondary students and their teachers, supported by state and territory education authorities and the Australian Council of State School Organisations.

Visit ASIC's MoneySmart website for freely available online materials, including Australian Curriculum-aligned units of work, digital resources and professional development for teachers.

Become a MoneySmart School today

For advice and support on becoming recognised as a MoneySmart School, visit ASIC's MoneySmart website.

moneysmart.gov.au/teaching

ASIC

Australian Securities & Investments Commission